Time, 12%, 24%, 36%, 49%, 1:02, 1:16.
Winner—Br. c. by Atheling—Wild Honey.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Dublin far outclassed his opponents. He is improving steadily and is one of the colts of his year. Without doubt he is also a better horse on a fast track. Paul Clifford was easily second best. He tired in the stretch from being carried at a fast clip by the winner. Malster ran a game race but was much outclassed. He evidently favors a distance.
Scratched—27367 King Pepper, 110; 27589 Golden Cottage, 100; 27631 Gunfire, 97.
No show betting on first three.

27736 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. $500 added. 3-year-olds. Maidens. Selling.

Time, 12%, 24%, 37%, 50%, 1:17%, 1:37%.
Winner—Ch. f. by Chorister—Ocean Queen.
Went to post at 2:45. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Maria Bolton got a lucky break and showed the most speed. She was stopping at the end. Pathfinder appeared able to go to the front on the turn, but received a bad looking ride. Advocate was much the best horse, but is a slow beginner and requires a strong jockey. He was poorly handled and shut off several times. Icicle looks like he might do better on a fast track. It was a bad lot outside of Advocate.
Scratched—25510 Monad, 114; 27323 Lauderdale, 114; Tros, 112; 27323 Welsh Girl, 105.
Corrected weights—Icicle, 112.
Overweights—Water Run, 1 pound.
Maria Bolton, show, 3 to 5. Pathfinder, show, 3 to 1. Advocate, show, out. Icicle, show, 3 to 5.

27737 THIRD RACE—1 3-16 Miles. 3-year-olds. Handicap.

Ind	Horses	A	Wt	St	¼	½	¾	StrFin	Jockeys	Owners	O	H	C	P
27661	THE RHYMER	98	3	11	114	114	12	13	Cochran	T F Monahan	1	1	1	1-4
27590	BARON PEPPER	104	1	3	3	3	3	2	Beauchamp	Pepper Stable	11-53	11-51	3-5
27716	BELLARIO	113	2	21	22	28	28	26	J Woods	R Croker	24	18-53	3-5

Time, 24%, 50, 1:17%, 1:43%, 2:03.
Winner—B. c. by The Bard—Equipoise.
Went to post at 3:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. The Rhymer was much the best in the sloppy going in which he is fully fourteen pounds better than on a fast track. Baron Pepper was unable to stride in the mud, but gradually closed a gap on Bellario, which had shown brilliant speed for seven furlongs, but tired badly in the stretch. Baron Pepper can beat these kind on a fast track over a distance. Bellario was greatly handicapped by wearing barplates and his front feet were bandaged.
Scratched—24020 Sentry, 87.

27738 FOURTH RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. $700 added. 2-year-olds. Handicap.

Time, 12%, 23%, 36%, 49%, 1:02%, 1:09%.
Winner—Br. c. by Halma—Fashionable.
Went to post at 3:50. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second driving. Smart Set, cleverly handled, favored the going, closed strong and was best. Sister Juliet, poorly handled, was made too much use of in the first part of the race and was stopping badly at the end. She showed far the most speed. Tribes Hill was probably handicapped by the mud and finished very strong. He can beat this kind on a fast track. Lady Sterling was very badly ridden in the worst going throughout. She ran a fine race and was going strong at the end. Belle's Commoner ran poorly and may do better on a fast track. Byrne of Roscrea quit as usual. Cold Stream showed speed, but stopped in the last furlong.
Scratched—27137 Francesco, 116; (27531) Flora Pomona, 113; 26754 O'Hagen, 104; 27504 Lady Godiva, 88.
Overweights—Belle's Commoner, 2 pounds; Foundling, 1.
Smart Set, show, 3 to 5. Sister Juliet, show, 6 to 5. Tribes Hill, show, 3 to 5. Belle's Commoner, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Stonehenge—Margery.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second driving. Oliver Mc is in great form, was lucky throughout and escaped the mix up on the first turn. Althea closed an immense gap and looks very good. Anecdote ran a much improved race and must have favored the heavy track. Astor was probably best. He broke slowly and was knocked out of it at the start, then was badly messed about and finished fast. Dolando has evidently gone back. He ran poorly and lacked his usual speed. In Shot and Mercer quit in the last furlong. Little Daisy lost a dozen lengths on the first turn. Entered for $500 Oliver Mc was bid up to $700 and bought by C. R. Ellison.

Scratched—27509 Mayer Gilroy, 106; 27632 Lee King, 104; 27714 Larkspur, 104; 27507 Ventoro, 98; 27660 Gertrude Elliott, 91; (27235) Pleasant Sail, 89.

Time, 25, 50, 1:18, 1:37.
Winner—B. f. by Falsetto—Glimpse.
Went to post at 2:41. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Marion Lynch was easily the best in the cuppy going. She lay in a good position to the stretch and, saving ground on the turn, came home all alone. Aloha II, swung wide into the stretch, losing a length or two, and came fast at the end, but could not catch the winner. Round O ran well, but lost ground at the head of the stretch and tired in the stretch run. Elbe received a weak ride and a weaker finish. The next four were at sea in the going. Polly Bixby quit after being prominent for six furlongs.
Scratched—27630 Hinsdale, 103; 27544 King Elkwood, 96.
Overweights—Round O, 2 pounds; Prince Zeno, 2; Madeline G., 5.

Time, 25, 50, 1:03.
Winner—B. g. by Ben Strome—Aine.
Went to post at 3:12. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second driving. Ben Hullum showed the most speed, but was straight at the wire. Vela did not run kindly until well into the stretch, when she came with a rush. Maid of Dundee kept within striking distance and ran her race. King Ford had no mishaps. Ardita tired in the last eighth after being prominent all the way. Edna Kenner likes a hard track best.
Scratched—25003 Hot, 101; 27208 Dougherty, 93; 27558 Lathrop, 98; 25899 Yetta P., 95.

Time, 24, 49, 1:14.
Winner—B. c. by Quicklime—Belle Baden.
Went to post at 3:47. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. Paul Creyton liked the going, saved ground on the turn and showed remarkable gameness. He finished strongly and just got up in time to nail Joe Martin on the post. The latter showed all of his usual speed but lost too much ground when swinging into the stretch. At that he should have won had Miller sent him to a drive earlier. Georgie does not seem to have her old time speed. The last two were never contenders.
Scratched—27146 Senator Beveridge, 115; 27626 Lacrimae, 85.
Paul Creyton, show, out. Georgie, show, evens.

Went to post at 4:11. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. George Gardner got away well and kept close to the pacemakers. At the head of the stretch she was called on and drew away like a good filly, but she was under a hard drive at the wire. Tea

GOSSIP FROM SARATOGA.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 22.—Dave Gideon sold Electress and Karl Kahler to H. T. Griffin today.

Mr. Whitney's string will be shipped to Sheephead Bay next Sunday. There is an unconfirmed rumor here that Mr. Whitney had purchased the famous old Saratoga hotel, Congress Hall, and intends to put up a first class modern hotel instead.

A set of turf records, filling a gap of racing in the United States between 1880 and 1870, has just been issued by W. C. Whitney. They were compiled by H. G. Crickmore and are a very valuable addition to our turf literature.

Isidor, the grand son of Amphion—Isis, bought at the late Marcus Daly auction sale by George E. Smith for $6,000, has just been resold by him to Messrs. Sanford & Sons for $12,200, to be used for breeding purposes.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

T. R., Chicago. Backers of Yankee are entitled to their money back. He would not have been coupled with City Bank if he had started. Saunders, Chicago. There was no odds against Edith Q. to show in her race August 20 and you are entitled to receive your money back.

P. B., Bloomington, Ill. Waring is in Chicago, but owing to an injury has not been raced here.

J. S., Chicago. "A" having bet on Queen's Messenger specifically loses his wager.

Subscriber, Chicago. Vesuvius has never run a mile and an eighth in 1:52 or better.

FLACCUS WINS THE EMERALD.

It rained heavily again at Hawthorne yesterday, the track and surroundings presenting as desolate a scene as one could imagine. Despite the inclement conditions a large crowd was present but the racing in most cases was of a tame order. The attractive feature of the day's sport was the Emerald Stakes, a steeplechase handicap for four-year-olds and upward over the short course. The chase developed into one of the best cross-country affairs seen hereabouts for some time even though the fences were splashing water at every jump of the journey. Sainly started out as if he was going to make a runaway race of it, opening a gap of ten lengths which he held until just after taking the fifth jump where Dick Furber moved up. Sainly stumbled at the sixth jump and came very near unseating his jockey. This mishap seemed to take all the speed out of him and he gradually retired thereafter. Dick Furber held a fair lead from this point up to the last jump, where Flaccus, Donation and Captain Conover closed on him. Flaccus got clear of the field in the short stretch and appeared to be an easy winner, but Dick Furber came again in the closing strides and brought him to a hard drive to win by a neck, with Captain Conover third four lengths away. Dick Furber was given a bungling ride in the stretch or he would have won. Donation and Captain Conover both closed much ground in the latter end of the route.

The purse in the fifth race was taken by that good mud mare Lennep, who simply spreadeagled her field and won as her rider pleased. She led by ten lengths at one stage of the journey and finally crossed the line eased up by seven lengths from Banish, he beating Major Dixon two lengths for second place. Banish ran in much improved form over his last performance and showed quite a liking for the going. Major Dixon could not extend himself to any advantage in the slushy track and ran a dull race. Charley Moore ran a disappointing race.

Lissome was much the best of a very poor field in the first race and had no trouble in maintaining a good lead to the end after the first quarter had been run. He won quite handily by three lengths from Patroon, he being six in front of Onoto, which had all he could do to beat out Duty for third place. Patroon closed up a lot of ground in the last quarter and finished strongly.

Jambert, which has proved himself to be one of the most consistent youngsters that has run here this year, took the second race, a six furlong dash for two-year-olds, in a big gallop, although he was badly outrun by Evening Star for the first five furlongs. The latter tired badly when a furlong out and it was no trouble, whatever, for Jaubert, always laid second, to pass him and win by three lengths, while Evening Star took second place from Emathion by four lengths. Neither Emathion nor Commissioner Forster could do themselves justice in the deep going and both were well spent by the time the wire had been reached. Major Bird ran well for four and a half furlongs and bears watching.

The Ryans after a number of attempts finally scored with their gelding Goal Runner in the third race, although it was a pretty tight fit as he only won by a short head from Wallenstein in a
